Stonington Disgruntled in Saturday's Game-Sailing Party for Providence Guest-Sale of Washington Street Property.

A large crowd of fans gathered at Industrial place Saturday afternoon to witness a baseball game between Stonington and Mystic. Up to the 9th inning the score was 5 to 0 in favor of Mystic, but at this time, Mystic, supposing that everything was sure, let the Stonington team have three runs. Gregg, the umpire, tried his best to please all, but, as usual, the kickers were there, and some of the Stonington team wanted to protest the game which seems to be the way lately when the Mystics have won out. The lineup follows:

Mystic—Brown c, McKay p, Lyhre 1b, Sylvia 2b, Haywood ss, Holmes 3b, Mallory if, Brooks of Quambly.

Stonington—Robertson c, Holland p, Sullivan 1b, Hartson 2b, Rail ss, Brennan 3b, Paine if, Cayanah if, Weils of telephone W, J, PHILLIPE, Write or telephone W, J, PHILLIPE, A large crowd of fans gathered a
